The screenshot displays a contact management interface. On the left, a sidebar titled "Your contacts" lists three contacts: "user" (highlighted in red), "user001", and "user002". The main area is titled "Add contact" and contains a form with the following fields:

- Name
  - First name:
  - Last name:
  - + Name:
- Email
  - Email:
  - Display as:

At the top of the form, there are two buttons: "Save" (with a floppy disk icon) and "Cancel" (with a trash can icon). The "Save" button is highlighted with a blue box, and a blue arrow points to it from the right.
